Dedication

With admiration and with recognition of her interest in each of us, we dedicate this, the fifteenth volume of the Choo Choo, to

Virginia McGuire Bullock

Foreword

With the flight of each moment, Time writes her chronical in a sprawling hand, pausing not, leaving indelible truth of days never to be relived, only to be remembered.

May the 1963 Choo Choo find justification in its recalling of the events of our "Golden Year"

Where the tall pines

Stand in greatness

'Neath the skies of blue,

Stands our noble Alma Mater

Glorious to view.

Lift the chorus,

Speed it onward,

May it never fail.

Hail to thee our Alma Mater

Hamlet High all hail!

Golden Year

Administrators

Relentlessly toiling,
Believing, disciplining,
Understanding all,
They build bridges
Instead of walls.

When a superintendent makes an error, No one knows the difference.

When a principal makes an error, His secretary re-types it.

When a teacher makes an error, He denies it.

But when a student makes an error, He fails.

Well, Mrs. Bauersfeld, I'm not very porke about writing in annuals and recounting all the good old days since I believe that the good old days are still coming. I must confers, however, that your class has brought me moments of pleasure unexcerted by any other, despite the fact that I can't spell very with at all and that I'm always petting my grade docked for it.

But, as I said, the good old days are still coming, and I hope you soon have that trip to Europe. I hope to go, too. Finally I must praise you while fail for thought, I thank you for that.
